

Daily Mood & Emotion Tracker

4-Week Journal Worksheet

Tracking your mood daily helps identify emotional patterns and triggers. Fill in each row every evening — it takes only 2-3 minutes.

How to Use

Mood Rating: Rate your overall mood from 1 (very low) to 10 (excellent).

Emotions: Write 2-3 dominant emotions you felt today.

Trigger: Note one situation or thought that most affected your mood.

Self-care: Tick any self-care activities you completed today.

Emotion Word Bank

Positive	Neutral / Mixed	Difficult
Joyful Grateful Calm Content Hopeful Proud Excited Loved Inspired	Surprised Confused Nostalgic Bored Curious Indifferent	Anxious Sad Angry Frustrated Lonely Guilty Overwhelmed Ashamed

Week 1 — Date: _____ to _____

Day	Date	Mood (1-10)	Main Emotions (2-3 words)	Key Trigger / Note	Self-Care
Monday
Tuesday
Wednesday
Thursday
Friday
Saturday
Sunday

Self-care: Sleep 7h+ Exercise Healthy meal Journaling Meditation Social connection Nature

Week 2 — Date: _____ to _____

Day	Date	Mood (1-10)	Main Emotions (2-3 words)	Key Trigger / Note	Self-Care
Monday
Tuesday
Wednesday
Thursday
Friday
Saturday
Sunday

Self-care: Sleep 7h+ Exercise Healthy meal Journaling Meditation Social connection Nature

Week 2 Reflection

What patterns did you notice this week?
What helped most when mood was low?
One thing to do differently next week:

Week 3 — Date: _____ to _____

Day	Date	Mood (1-10)	Main Emotions (2-3 words)	Key Trigger / Note	Self-Care
Monday
Tuesday
Wednesday
Thursday
Friday
Saturday
Sunday

Self-care: Sleep 7h+ Exercise Healthy meal Journaling Meditation Social connection Nature

Week 3 Reflection

What patterns did you notice this week?
What helped most when mood was low?
One thing to do differently next week:

Week 4 — Date: _____ to _____

Day	Date	Mood (1-10)	Main Emotions (2-3 words)	Key Trigger / Note	Self-Care
Monday
Tuesday
Wednesday
Thursday
Friday
Saturday
Sunday

Self-care: Sleep 7h+ Exercise Healthy meal Journaling Meditation Social connection Nature

Week 4 Reflection

What patterns did you notice this week?
What helped most when mood was low?
One thing to do differently next week:

Monthly Summary & Insights

My average mood score was _____ / 10.

My highest mood days tended to happen when: _____

My lowest mood days tended to happen when: _____

The self-care activity that helped most: _____

A trigger I want to manage better: _____

One skill I want to develop next month: _____

When to Seek Support

If your mood score is consistently below 4 or you experience persistent sadness/anxiety for more than two weeks, please reach out to a mental health professional. Book at commonpsychology.com.np.